

Abstract Collage and Spirit Animals

Starts Thursday October 19th - December 14th No Class-November 23rd

9:30-12:00

In this weekly class we will explore the diverse artistic spirit in the animals around us. Use of collage and mixed media with open discussion on our favorites with the book by Jamie Sam's Medicine Cards, the discovery of power through the ways of Animals. The making of collage papers, stencils and instructional reference on composition with the elements and principle of design students will be encouraged to build upon their experience each week. The use of the tack iron will be taught with this class.

8wks

Supplies to bring to class

BRING NEWSPAPERS FOR A WORK SURFACE.

Scissors

Exacto knife, ruler, pencil

1 National Geographic, (from 1995 to present, we will create altered collage papers)

1 sheet fine sand paper-generic is fine.

Jar of Golden's Polymer gloss medium

16oz or larger (<http://www.dickblick.com/products/golden-gloss-medium/>)

Gesso-(Small jar)

1 Container for water

1 tub of baby wipes

1 roll of paper towels

Roll of wax paper

1 small mist/spray bottle for water

Drawing materials, pastel pencils, Wax crayons or watercolor pencils- at least one kind will be great.

A few paper or foam plate for mixing paint on (or some kind of tray like that.)

A few paint brushes, 1" assortment and a very small one for detailed work.

Acrylic paints, assortment of colors, with white and black.

Found papers (old book pages, sheet music, old letters, ticket stubs, etc.)

1 pad of 140 lb. watercolor paper size at least 11 x 14

A few Images of animals you like or seemed called to, found on the internet in silhouettes at least 3" to no larger than 6". We will make stencils.

Please bring a plastic table cloth for the floor to lay collage papers to dry (dollar store kind)

As you can see there are some supplies to bring to class and the walk way has no stairs but its bit of walk, you might want to use a suit case on wheels or something like that, makes for a smooth walk in.

$20.00 Material fee for added supplies the instructor will bring, paper, stencil material, white tape, use of tack irons and odd papers and stamping materials.

Any questions about the supply list please contact Laura at lonecrow4@gmail.com or 630-655-4492