You already have the wisdom and knowledge in you to inspire direction for the New Year, why not try something different this year? Instead of goals or resolution what about make a creative vision board? This one day workshop will involve a variety of tools to ignite creative insight through writing, drawing, mark making and the gathering of images. Areas of change, adventure, personal interests, inspiration and intention will be brought to the surface of a large board. Open discussion will be welcomed at the end of the day as we view our year ahead and where steps can be taking to execute these exciting new ideas and growth.

Materials to bring to the workshop:

- ✚ Students are to purchase 5 to 7 magazines that are of their personal interested and or subject matter. Think about areas that you might want to grow into or haven't explored before.
- ✚ A photo of your face which will be used to start us off on your vision board.
- ✚ Bring a brown bag lunch, something to drink.
- ✚ Wear comfortable cloths, an apron.

All other materials will be supplied.

$75.00 + Material fee $5.00 will be collected at the beginning of the workshop

Artist and Instructor Laura Lein-Svencner will be presenting this workshop. www.lauralein-svencner.com
